Welcome to Funky Scrubs! Congratulations on taking the next step towards a fabulous career within the hair and beauty industry. We have been there and can tell you that you have an exciting and fulfilling time ahead.

We have teamed up with your college to provide the uniform for the duration of your course and we hope to impress you so much that you will continue to wear them throughout your career. We even have a special discount for you to use long after your college days (but more on that later).

Coleg Cambria have selected for you to wear our Grey Classic Top and Urban Joggers scrubs as your new uniform. You must purchase a minimum of one set to begin your course but you can purchase as many as you like. We recommend that you purchase at least 2 so you can wear one, wash one.

As new students in the industry we want to support your career choice as much as possible and have agreed the fantastic price of £46 with your college. (Saving you £34)

All you need to do is select your size and whether you would like it shipped to your home which costs £5 or shipped directly to your college just before your course begins, which is £1.

Good luck in your new adventure. We will be in touch nearer to the completion of your course with a lifelong discount code for you to use on our entire site.

Jo, Lyndsey and the Funky Scrubs Team.
